MARK KING

Copenhagen, Denmark
October 27, 1988

In the fall of 1988, Level 42 performed a series of concerts in Denmark. A couple of these concerts were filmed, with the intention of using the footage in the 'Fait Accompli' documentary. The October 28th show in Valleyhallen was filmed, but never used. Seems the lighting was deemed insufficient, and not suitable for inclusion in 'Fait Accompli'. The performance contained on this CD, was actually used in 'Fait Accompli', so fire up your VCR, and see if you can pick the songs out. As I write this almost 10 years later, this performance, while incomplete, is a testament to the staying power of Level 42's music. This would be the only concert tour for Alan Murphy with the band, whose untimely death would prevent another.

ALAN MURPHY

GARY HUSBAND

Not to be forgotten are touring musicians Annie McCaig, and Krys Mach. Annie's backing vocals have become an important part of Level 42's live shows. She provides a much needed harmony with Mike Lindup, which wick easily duplicates the smooth sound of their studio recordings. Krys Mach has also been a steady touring member, and one listen to his EWI playing during 'It's Over' will surely attest to this fact.

Special thanks to Mike Payne for providing this concert recording, Carl Mueller for the audio tips and Bill Wilson for the blank media.
